justice SOLUTIONS

Since conditional fee agreements were introduced in 1995, an increasing number of people have taken them up. However, like any legal matter, they can be stressful and expensive, and you need to know that your interests are protected.

With 80^e Justice Solutions, you can look forward not only to peace of mind, but also professionalism and financial support when you need it most.

why you NEED INSURANCE

Taking legal action is stressful and even though you have made a conditional fee agreement with your solicitor, there are other potential costs to consider.

Your insurance policy will help you in the following circumstances.

- If you lose
While you will not have to pay any legal costs to your solicitor, you will have to pay for your own disbursements and your opponent's legal costs and disbursements.
- If your claim is withdrawn
You may have to pay your own disbursements and your opponent's legal costs and disbursements.
- If there is a failure to beat a Part 36 offer
You may have to pay some of your own disbursements and your opponent's legal costs and disbursements.

- If you win
You may have to pay your own legal costs, disbursements and success fee.

This could occur if:

- you win but find that costs are not awarded in your favour; or
- you win but your opponent cannot pay what the court orders him or her to pay.

- If you win and cannot recover the premium
You may not be able to recover your premium in full or in part.

80^e Justice Solutions will protect you against all these costs until your claim ends.

general QUESTIONS

When will I have to pay the insurance premium?

The premium due for your policy is payable at the conclusion of your claim.

The level of the premium depends on the stage at which your claim ends. The three stages are listed below.

- Before court proceedings are issued.
- From issue of court proceedings up to stage c.
- From 14 days before the trial date, or the trial period if applicable.

Your solicitor will inform you of the premium that applies at the start of your claim.

You will be sent an updated 80^e schedule of insurance as written notice of the premium that applies if your claim reaches stages b or c above. The premiums for stages b and c will be individually assessed to ensure a fair and reasonable premium is charged.

Win or lose, there will be nothing to pay, subject to the terms of the policy.

If an action is lost, how is the claim paid?

80^e will pay the claim direct to your solicitor.

Will any money be deducted from my damages if I win?

No, your damages are fully protected.
